Declaration of Risk Assessment Awareness in Yodha Calibration Lab.

We, Yodha Manufacturing and Equipments Private Limited an NABL (National Accreditation Board for Testing and Calibration Laboratories) accredited laboratory, hereby declare that our employees possess a comprehensive awareness of risk assessment.

As an NABL-accredited laboratory, we recognize the importance of conducting thorough risk assessments to identify and mitigate potential hazards associated with our testing and calibration activities.

We adhere to the NABL guidelines and standards, which emphasize the importance of risk assessment and management within accredited laboratories. Our risk assessment practices align with the requirements specified by NABL. We are committed to continuous improvement in our risk assessment practices. Feedback from employees and management is sought and incorporated into our risk assessment procedures to enhance their effectiveness and relevance.

Based on our records and ongoing monitoring, we can confidently state that our employees possess a comprehensive awareness of risk assessment within our laboratory.
