

Health, Safety and Environment Policy

---

STECH is committed to provide satisfaction & ever improving value by maintaining and improving Health, Safety and Environmental performance through continual improvements, by

- Adherence to all legal regulations and requirements applicable to our organization,
- Promotion of Occupational Health , Safety and environment awareness among our employees, associates and other interested parties through continuous education and training.
- To provide a safe working environment, we will focus on achieving 5S compliance across the plant.
- Every STECH Team member is responsible and committed for implementation of this policy.