

ORGANIZATIONAL CHART- CHADHA INDUSTRIES PRIVATE LIMITED

Mr. RK Chadha: At the helm of the company, Mr RK Chadha has over 4 decades of technical expertise when it comes to filtration. Mr Chadha adds tremendous value to the organization by imparting both his wisdom and his vision to lead the team.

Mr. Sharad Chadha: A mechanical engineer by training, Sharad is the third generation in the family to join the business. Now with over a decade and half at the head of operations and marketing, Sharad spearheads the various verticals in the organization.

Mr. Nipun Chadha: With a diverse educational background, a Masters in Biomedical Engineering from the US, Nipun brings in a fresh perspective to the business. His approach towards business is unconventional and multidisciplinary. Also third generation to join the business, Nipun heads operations, R&D, new market and product developments for the company.

Raji: A dedicated and detail oriented accounting professional having over 8 years of experience in all aspects of accounting and finance. She is associated with us since 2012. Raji leads the efforts for various finance related activities. She brings in a vast experience related to taxation and company finance management.

Kusum Chaudhary: HR professional having more than 6 years of notable experience in HR recruitment and operations. She holds a degree in MBA with specialization in HR & Marketing. Kusum brings in a nuanced approach to her role focusing on overall development of the team delivering an open and robust work environment conducive for professional and personal growth.

Ehateshamul Haq Khan: Kabir, a trained Mechanical engineer, he brings in a focused experience when it comes to inventory, system and quality management. With a knack for proper shop floor management, Kabir brings in a fresh approach to improving productivity.

Deepak Kumar Sharma: Deepak has been associated with the company since 2009 and takes care of all the operational work related to production. A thorough and highly dedicated professional, he is also the production-incharge. With a very hands on approach, he is the go to trouble shooter for a variety of operational and R&D project.

Siba R Panda: With close to two decades of association with the organization, Sibaram has an unparalleled exposure within the filtration industry. With experience in various departments in the organization, he now heads the production department. He holds a degree in Mechanical engineering.

Ajeet Singh: A thorough professional having 5+ years of experience. He holds a diploma in Mechanical. Ajeet translates ideas to design using his superior CAD skills. He also helps the machining department in design verifications, prototyping, as well as CAM models.