

OM SAI ENTERPRISES

hazard identification and risk assesment (HIRA)

Dencification floor,grinding floor, grovting floor,chemical works.	dust raised by the dencification work noise and vibration caused by the machines,hand tools ,explosives and falling /collapsing parts of the building following objects hand injury is a risk where chemical works foot injury is risk where grinding & chemicals work	clearly marking and with barriers or hordings any debris and dust will be removed as soon as possible to a safe place , and workplace as well as pathways kept tidy. ensuring machines and equipment are maintained properlyand regularly.use of hand gloves,useof safety shoes and helmet
Excavation	excavated soil or equipment falling on worker moving machinery near the edge of the excavation can cause a collapse. the accidental severing of underground utility lines/power lines.	correct desingining of slopping and benching system. correct designing of support system,shild system and other protective systems plusa propprite handling of material and equipment plus attention to correct installation and removal of equals protection or employee at excavations use of safety helmet. protecting hand and eys by safety helmet and glasses.

