PERSONAL PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT (PPE)

Works needing to wear personal protective equipment (PPE) and persons working in high-risk situations will need special training. Supervisor and worker alike must be taught the proper selection, use and maintenance of PPE. Since PPE sometimes can be cumbersome, employee may need to be motivated to wear it in every situation where protection is necessary.

Therefore, training will be being with clear explanation of why the equipment necessary, how its use will benefit the wearer. And what its limitations are remind your employees of our desire to protect them.

Emergency Response : We will train our employees to respond to emergency situations. Every employee at every work site will understand :

- Emergency Telephone Numbers and who may use them.
- Emergency exits and how they are marked.
- Evacuation Routes & Signals that alert employees to the need of evacuation. (The safety team/coordinator) will evaluated training through the following methods.
- Observing employees' skills.
- Surveys and interviews to determine employee knowledge and attitudes about training.
- Reviewing the training plan and lesson plans.
- Comparing training conducted with hazards in the workplace.]
- Reviewing training documents and
- Comparing pre and post training injury and accident rates.
